

Waiokeola Congregational Church
April 12, 2020

1. We will be celebrating communion virtually together. Please prepare your elements (i.e., juice, wine or water and a type of bread or cracker) before you start watching our Sunday morning service so we can all partake the body and blood of Jesus virtually together.
  - Please don't make a special trip to the store. I plan to use what I already have.
2. Music song sheets are available for download on the attached pdf.
3. A big MAHALO, to our sewers - Charlotte Szarmes, Kimie Gross, Emma & Pat Fujisaki, Irene Lai (Awana parent), Susan Yoza, Leilani Guieb, Carol Maehara, Kela Iwata and Cassidy (Charlotte's sewing student) for spreading the love of God through by making and distributing masks to our members and community. Praise God!
4. The bible tells us in 1 Timothy 2:1-2 that Paul the apostle urges his apprentice Timothy, "I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people— for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness." In these uncertain times, our leaders need God's wisdom, peace, and understanding.
  - While we are separated by the Coronavirus, we can be unified in prayer. Please set an alarm on your phone or clock to pray for our Government & church leaders, for our country, for the sick and broken-hearted. One minute of prayer at 1 pm every day is a simple but powerful way to make a difference.
5. I officially launched my blog this past week, and it is now linked to our Waiokeola website. This space will for us to interact and grow as a community, so while we shelter-in-place, this blog/vlog will be a way for us to stay connected.
6. Mahalo for your continued support of Waiokeola through your faithful giving of your tithes and offerings by mailing in your check to our offices.

7. List of Prayers, Joys & Concerns are available to view on the attached pdf.
